

Jerôme Arnaud joins Intersec as CFO

Press release - September 19th 2016 - Paris, Intersec (<https://www.intersec.com/en/>), the leading vendor of real-time streaming analytics software is pleased to announce the appointment of Jérôme Arnaud as its new CFO.

Jérôme will serve as CFO for Intersec to supervise all its financial operations and strengthen the Group's international structure. This nomination matches Intersec's ambitions. The company's sustained commercial development, with customers across every continent and multi-million euro deals, requires strong financial and legal international expertise to strengthen its growth. Jérôme's extensive international experience in software businesses and large companies makes him a perfect fit for Intersec.

Jérôme Arnaud began his career as auditor at PricewaterhouseCoopers in France and in the USA from 1990 to 1999. At Ilog, a NASDAQ and Euronext-listed software vendor, he served as group CFO, based in California from 2000, until the sale of the company to IBM in 2009. He then joined Generix Group, a Euronext-listed software vendor of collaborative applications for 3 years, before joining Dassault Systèmes from 2012 to 2016 as CFO APAC, based in Tokyo and Shanghai.

About this appointment, Yann Chevalier, CEO declares: « We're delighted to welcome Jérôme Arnaud. Jérôme's appointment occurs at the right moment in the company's life. Intersec's strong international development, its recent deals and its willingness to enter new verticals lead us to reinforce our organization. Jérôme's extensive international experience will significantly contribute to improve our operational efficiency. ».
